PRISONER ESCAPES FROM JAIL.

The sudden disappearance last Tuesday evening of George Brown, a prisoner at the county jail, is a problem that the sheriff's department cannot account for.

When Deputy Sheriff Hatch went down to the prisoners' supper, and down to the prisoners' cells, Brown was missing. A search was made for him, but he could not be found.

It was not until the county jail was confined to the district court pending an appeal to the district court on the charge of grand larceny.

The sheriff and deputies, also the police have made a thorough search, but have found no trace of him. He is believed to have left town. He was a white man, about 35 years of age, and was a native of Ohio.

laid his experience of Indian fighting. A very appropriate talk to the pioneers was given by H. P. Jorgensen, our school principal.

Mr. Harrison gave an interesting talk, and complimented the people of Fountain Green for being the first in Salt Lake county to extend invitations to such a number of comic songs.

A cuckoo-mocking bird song was beautifully rendered by Peter Agasson, an aged gentleman. Hon. Henry Draper, of Goshen, ex-Bishop R. L. Johnson and Bishop Christensen addressed the people in an interesting strain, after which the veteran choir sang "The Army Band," and the meeting adjourned until 7:30 p.m.

EVENING ENTERTAINMENT.

Promptly at 7:30 the large pavilion was filled to its utmost capacity by the young, middle aged, and old, all being filled with the spirit of the occasion, and anxiously awaiting the commencement of the performance.

The curtain raised as the orchestra finished playing an overture, and the sound of the veteran choir greeted the ears of the people in the song of "We Went to the Black Hawk War."

This was followed by a short address by Hon. Samuel H. Tew of Springville, when Miss Ella Ivory recited "A Flag on Every School House," and received well merited cheers.

During the evening song by the Black Hawk, the Rensselaer," by Nephil Robertson, was not rendered.

As the curtain rolled up an Indian camp was vividly represented, when Chief Black Hawk delivered a stirring talk to his gathered warriors, which aroused them into an exciting war dance, and as the curtain dropped the old light of the Black Hawk War was extinguished.

Next Sunday evening the tabernacle choir will render a musical program to which the public in general is invited.
